Out & About

It is that time of the summer, the last vacation, the last big weekend off. If you haven't guessed, I'm talking about Labor Day Weekend. There are some big upcoming auctions planned for that weekend, so plan on attending them. Take in an antique show along the way, who says there is no more space for one more collectible. My son is so creative when it comes to creating himself more space when you tell him he has enough, he has started stacking his stuff. He says he has two collections now, hub caps and bobble heads. We went on a day trip this past weekend and he can spot a hub cap anywhere along the side of the road, even buried in weeds. He always asks if we can pick it up.

Brandon went golfing with Grandpa alot while he was Up North. They go to the Nama Golf Course, in Nama, Michigan. The course is 91 years old. One time while golfing they ran into a deer that was about 20 feet from them, Brandon thought it was cool being so close to wild life while golfing. While golfing with his Great Uncle Dick who was visiting from Florida, he was informed of a monkey squirrel, it has a head of a monkey & a body of a squirrel & loves to steal your golf ball off the course & loves to sit in your golf cart while you are golfing. Which by the way, is Brandon's favorite thing to do, drive the cart! He has lots of fun golfing!

The Original Americans Showcased at 29th Annual Native American Artifact & Antique Show

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

The first thing that you'll notice as you enter the Native American Artifact & Antique Show is: it's free! It's truly a labor of love for collectors and show organizers John & Linda Welsch, who have been running this annual event for a good part of its twenty-nine year history. There's no charge for either parking or admission to the show. And no, the floor isn't covered with fancy carpeting, and there's no mood music playing either.

5702a The 29th Annual Native American Artifact & Antique Show owes a lot to longtime organizers John & Linda Welsch. They've grown the event, founded in 1984, into one of the best Native American shows in the Midwest or anywhere. For more show information, they can be reached at 920-923-3842

That lack of pretension doesn't mean that the show lacks in quality - this event is one of the Midwest's best Native American shows, drawing dealers and serious buyers from both near and far.

Those of us not schooled in the prehistoric period of North America probably didn't know that Wisconsin has been a cultural center for indigenous peoples for more than 12,000 years. Those first Paleo-Americans were known to have visited the area near what is now Hixton, Wisconsin to make stone tools from the local Hixton quartzite that's unique to the site. The stone was widely distributed too, with Hixton Quartzite stone points dating to 9,000 BC and older having been found as far away as Kentucky! You'll find some exceptional examples of it here at the Baraboo Show too, most notable in the amazing display of collector Gene Hynek.

The Badger State region was also home to another early civilization, known today as the Old Copper Culture. Maybe I slept through high school history class, but I had no idea that Wisconsin's Old Copper Culture peoples were among the world's first metalworkers, producing beautiful and functional forged copper objects as far back as 7,500 BC. I found several exhibitors with examples of these copper tools and ornaments, most priced at only a few hundred dollars.

Fast forward several thousand years and you'll come across the other main category of Native American collectibles: trade goods. As Western "civilization" spread across the nation, native peoples began producing everything from rugs and pottery to baskets and beadwork to trade for manufactured goods at what became known as Indian trading posts. A few even survive to this Day.

Dennis Arbieter's Rainbow Traders had many examples of such handicrafts. They've been one of the nation's premier auction houses dealing in Native American objects for more than three decades. Finds there included a geometric Navaho rug still retaining its signed Burnt Water Trading Post "thumbprint" tag ($700) - plus some choice Navaho Yei rugs, which depict stylized & elongated ceremonial dancers both male and female.

In fact, you can find almost anything associated with indigenous American peoples at the show, from prehistoric stone tools & points to carved catlinite pipes to early trade tomahawks. The photos will give you an idea of what the event has to offer.

The Baraboo Native American Show is definitely worth the trip, whether you're an experienced collector of Native American history or not. All of the dealers are collectors at heart, and are more than happy to share their years of knowledge - and enthusiasm - with even the most casual shopper. For more information about the show, you can contact show organizers John & Linda Welsch at 920-923-3842. And as always, keep an eye out for the 30th Annual Native American Artifact & Antique Show in the Auction Action Antique News!

Jim Hanus came with more than just Native American pieces, like this jumbo vintage fish spearing decoy (with pen for scale), asking price $85.

Period Native American craftwork & artifacts are focus of the show, but you'll find vendors with everything from decoys to fossils & more sprinkled in.

Two outstanding beadwork pieces from John & Linda Welsch: the 1880s Southern Cheyenne women's boots priced at $4,800, the Sioux fully-beaded man's vest with American flag & tipi motif at $13,500. 920-923-3842

Shoppers had a wide array of period beadwork to choose from at The Kerr Gallery, including this circa 1900 Cheyenne woman's bag in perfect condition - $550. 414-224-1457

There were lots of Inuit soapstone carvings to choose from at South Carolina's Wintergreen Farms, my favorite this 8" reclining walrus, circa 1940s & priced at $295. 803-415-0760

I found this early Acoma Pueblo wedding pot at Estate Buyers of La Crosse, 12" in height & priced at $1,250. 608-785-2274

Group of nineteen field-found obsidian stone points, from Dan Maas - $1,800. 608-788-5745

Dan Maas had one of the best catlinite pipe displays at the show, with examples like this 10" horse effigy pipe, asking price $800. 608-788-5745

More highlights from Wintergreen Farms: the Inuit sealskin beaded moccasins priced at $195, the Eastern Cherokee carved wood grease bowl at $200. 803-415-0760

From Estate Buyers of La Crosse, an iron butcher's trade sign/meat rack measuring 8' in length - $3,750. 608-785-2274

There were hundreds of stone artifacts to choose from at Rainbow Traders, among the best this authentic Birdstone, asking price $2,800. 618-372-0248

Choice textiles at Dennis Arbeiter's Rainbow Traders included these Navaho Yei and Medicine Woman Ceremony rugs. 618-372-0248

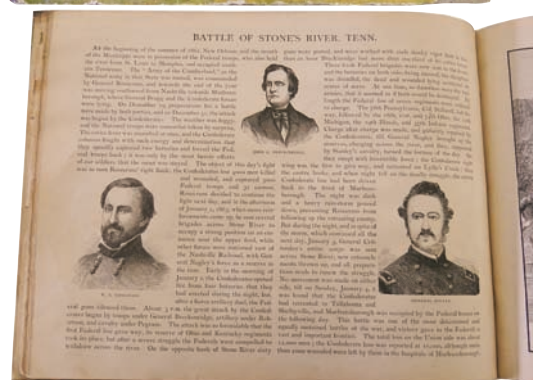

Dennis Arbeiter of Rainbow Traders with a circa 1950s Burnt Water Trading Post rug with Laura Redhorse Murphy "thumbprint" tag still attached, measuring 33" x 60" & priced at $700. 618-372-0248

I found this early Dallas J. Valley (Prairie du Chein, WI) hollow-carved crow decoy in Alan Nyberg's display, asking price $475. 608-778-5523

1890s Grand Army Picture Book, from Alan Nyberg - $125. 608-778-5523

A trio of vintage Ojibwa quilled birch bark pieces from John Welsch: the 10 1/2" diameter floral-decorated covered basket with family provenance priced at $350, the 5 1/2" covered basket in a beaver motif at $160, and the 8" miniature winnowing tray at $145. 920-923-3842

There was a little bit of everything at Robert's Relics, from a WWII Officer's Mess menu from Bataan, Philippines ($20) to this large stone axe-head - $750. 708-516-0239

Lac du Flambeau tribal member Gregg Guthrie brought some old family photos just for fun, including this 1914 photograph of his dad as a little boy in full regalia!

Wisconsin's Gordon Morris brought a huge informational display (and many for sale too) of prehistoric copper artifacts he'd personally found in northern Wisconsin. I had no idea, but Wisconsin's Copper Culture Indians were among the first metal workers in the world, producing objects such as these harpoon tips and crescents as long as 7,500 years ago.

Gene Hynek brought part of his famous collection of Hixton quartzite stone points, including these early Clovis Culture points both found in Richland County, Wisconsin. 608-574-1851

Quality finds at Sill Tribal Trading ranged from a circa 1940s-50s Maria Martinez black-on-black pot ($1,250) to this 1930s deer-hide woman's wedding shirt - $800. 952-484-0582

Two period highlights from Robert Olson: the near-mint Montana Crow beaded possible bag priced at $1,000, the 11" x 16" parfleche bag at $950.

Exhibitor Charles Betz has been buying & selling for more than fifty years, and brought finds like this Marv Strahota mallard pair ($250) and framed set of American Indian Chiefs tobacco cards - $150.

Shoppers found wonderful oddities at Schoolmaster Antiques; my favorites this circa-1910 bobtail horse windmill weight complete with weight-box ($595) and Buckeye Universal mercury Incubator Thermometer - $29. 608-356-1017

American toile is scenic fabric and wallpaper that bring the story of America to life. These delightful prints depict both historic events and everyday moments beginning with colonial times and moving right on up to the present. Over 180 bright color photos capture American toile in its many themes. While based on a European design model, American toile is quintessentially American. It portrays cowboys and Indians, farmers and suburbanites, slaves and soldiers. Its major illustrated topics include the colonial era, the new republic, the Civil War, the West, farm and city life, maritime and leisure activities, as well as a variety of patriotic symbols. In addition to a historical introduction and identification guide, the book includes antique, vintage, and reproduction toile patterns, along with original contemporary designs. It is fifty percent American history, fifty percent fabric history, and one hundred percent fascinating!

600+ Lots Cross the Block at Massart's July 12 Auction

Article & Photos by Massart Auctioneers

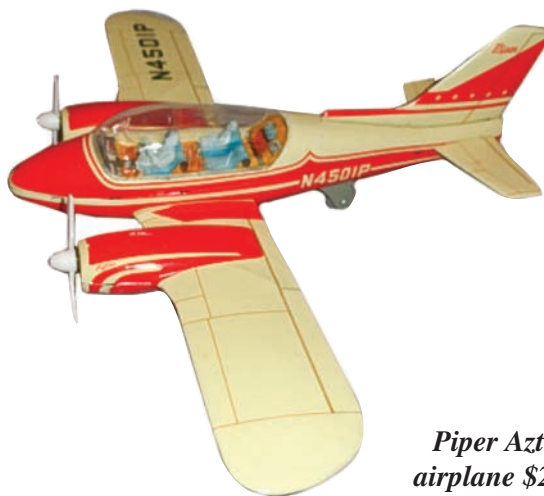

Auctioneer Michelle Massart CAI-BAS calling bids on one of the many toys.

After 5 1/2 hours of selling some 600+ lots, everyone was happy with the results. The toys were in great condition, even after being played with ever so gently so many years ago. The Tonka Doughboy feed truck & Tonka toys in general brought a lot of interest, along with the Tru Scale farm toys.

A Tonka tanker sold for $270, Two Tonka storage tanks brought $230, a Tonka Doughboy feed truck sold for $325, and a blue Tonka truck brought a bid of $120. Other items such as a White Structo toy truck sold for $70, a Tonka stake truck brought $180, Marx Falcon car was sold for $310, and a Structo ready mix truck fetched $110. The Tru Scale farm toys ranged from $35 to $120 per item. Massart's also sold two Piper Aztec friction powered airplanes, one with a box and the second with no box. Prices were $230 & $180 respectively. A Farmall 560 pedal tractor drew spirited bidding & sold to a happy bidder for $375. A few other items sold were a Simplicity riding mower for $400, an Ariens snow-blower for $560 and an Ariens rear tine tiller for $425. Many other items were sold, but these are just a few of the highlights.

It was a great day for an auction, the weather beautiful, the crowd energized, happy buyers and happy sellers were all around. Massart Auctioneers will be celebrating 40 years in the auction industry. If you have questions regarding this auction or you are thinking about having an auction, you can reach Massart Auctioneers Inc. at (920) 468-1113 or visit their website www.massartauctioneers.com

Gone Wild for Manatee Gift Adoptions!

Adopting real Florida manatees for family and friends this Holiday season is nature-inspired, thoughtful gift-giving that helps Save the Manatee Club increase conservation and education efforts for the endangered marine mammals and their aquatic habitat. It also helps holiday shoppers stretch those often limited budgets.

Last year, Lisa Cartossa from Holt, Missouri, decided that since her two young nieces, Lily and Rose from North Carolina, were fortunate enough to have most everything they needed, she would adopt manatees as Christmas presents for them. Lisa chose adoptees "Paddy Doyle" and "Flash," who regularly winter at Blue Spring State Park, from Save the Manatee Club's Adopt-A-Manatee program. All of the manatees available for adoption can be viewed on the Club's website at <http://www.savethemanatee.org/adoptees.htm>. Two new manatees recently added to the list of adoptees are from Alabama, "Zewie" and "Bama."

An annual manatee adoption costs $25, which is just a little over $2 a month, and includes a color photo of a real manatee, an adoption certificate, biography, membership handbook, and subscriptions to the Club's newsletters which feature updated reports on the manatees in the adoption program. Shipping is free within the United States. Gift adoptions are sent with a personalized holiday message. Or for a $35 tax-deductible donation, each new member will also receive Save the Manatee Club's 2012 wall calendar, featuring spectacular manatee photos to enjoy all year and well past.

"When my nieces received their adoption packets for Christmas, I was told you could not have heard two children screaming with excitement louder than they were," said Lisa. "Immediately, the manatees' pictures went on their walls. They knew about

37th Annual Premier Depression Glass Show & Sale

Wisconsin's 37th Premier Depression Glass Show & Sale Sponsored by the Depression Era Glass Society of Wisconsin will be on Saturday, October 19th from 10am to 5pm & on Sunday, October 20th from 11am to 3pm.

Appreciators and collectors from around the area will be converging on the Knights of Columbus Hall at 3200 South 103rd Street in Milwaukee, Wisconsin to attend our yearly glass show and sale. Featuring dealers from around the country. These dealers will bring untold treasures, including Depression & Elegant Glass, Kitchenware and Pottery.

From those one-of-a-kind pieces you never thought you would see outside the covers of a book, to that last stray piece to complete a beloved collection. There will be something for everyone, including that first piece that leads to a lifetime of collecting. Featured will be American Glass companies: Fostoria, Cambridge, Imperial, Indiana Glass, Morgantown, Fenton, Tiffin, New Martinsville & many more.

There will be door prizes, food, a reference library along with glass identification. Admission is $4 which allows you entrance for both days. To obtain more information call 262-376-9874 manatees, but Save the Manatee Club's adoption program created this passion and enthusiasm in them that's very wonderful for me as an adult to be part of. I can't tell you how thrilled my nieces are to get the newsletter addressed personally to them. They read every word front to back. Who knows, the Club may have just created the next generation of marine life specialists dedicated to the conservation of these wonderful creatures."

Save the Manatee Club, a national nonprofit organization, was co-founded thirty years ago by singer/songwriter Jimmy Buffett. Funds from the Holiday gift adoptions help with manatee rescue, rehabilitation, and release efforts; research; education and public awareness projects; conservation work to protect manatees and their habitat; and for programs in the United States, Central and South America, the Wider Caribbean, and West Africa. Manatees are listed as endangered at the state, federal, and international levels.

Patrick Rose, aquatic biologist and Executive Director of the Club, points out that manatees face tremendous challenges to their survival from human activities. "In Florida alone, since record-keeping began in 1974, more than 38% of manatee deaths where cause of death is known were human-related. So it is imperative that we continue to educate the public about the presence of manatees in our waters. Adopting a manatee is a great way to learn more about this beloved species and how to help make a difference in their lives."

Find out more information about manatees and Holiday gift adoptions by contacting Save the Manatee Club at 500 N. Maitland Ave., Maitland, FL 32751, or calling 1-800-432-JOIN (5646), or visiting their web site at www.savethemanatee.org, where you can also sign up for the Club's free E-Newsletter. Also, discover a variety of manatee items in the Club's gift catalog at <http://www.savethemanatee.org/shop/>.

Conrad Seipp Brewery's Black Point Estate, Lake Geneva Restoration Focus of 2014 Benefit Auction

From 19th century classics to 1950s modern, the "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction", April 26, 2014, will have it all.

Savvy buyers & enthusiastic collectors are once again looking forward to the April 26, 2014 "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction" to be held for the third time at Clausing Barn, Old World Wisconsin in Eagle. You see, the auction only takes place every other April, making it a must-attend event.

Produced by the Friends of the Wisconsin Historical Society and sponsored by the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association, the 2010 and 2012 auctions provided important funding for Old World Wisconsin, National History Day, and the restoration of a number of paintings important to Wisconsin's history.

2014 funding plans include a number of restoration projects at Black Point Estate in Lake Geneva, the Wisconsin Historical Society's latest historical site acquisition. A portrait of Catherine (Mrs. Conrad) Seipp is the first object from the estate to benefit from the "Friends" efforts, thanks to a generous grant just received from the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association. Conrad Seipp, who had driven a beer wagon for Miller Brothers brewery, eventually started his own brewery, becoming one of the largest in the U.S. Mrs. Seipp was ultimately responsible for expansion of Black Point to its largest acreage and fullest glory after her husband's untimely death in 1890. Besides depicting an important member of the family and in a significant location within the home, the painting is also well done by a known painter, Alexander von Liezen-Mayer (Hungarian, 1839-1898).

Contributions of antiques (more than 99 years old) and vintage items (50-99 years old) are now being gathered from across middle America. In keeping with their goal to "preserve and share history", each item will be accompanied by a Provenance Statement. The auction catalog will list the known history of each piece as well as the donor's name, if desired. Tax deductible receipts will be provided.

The grant just received from the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association continues their commitment as the auction's founding sponsors. The admissions charged at their October and February antiques shows in Waukesha fund their grant and scholarship programs. See <http://www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com> to learn more.

Carol Miller of Bailey's Honor Auction Service in Oconomowoc has once again volunteered to call the auction. You can follow her many quality auctions throughout the year at <http://baileyshonor.com/>

For questions about the 2014 "30th Star Benefit Antiques Auction" or to make a donation of an antique or vintage item, please contact Riene Wells at 262.363.4700, info@eagle-house.com or Debbie McArdle at 815.575.1272, jjm-card@comcast.net.
