

Go For The "GOLD" At The Gold Rush In Rochester, Minnesota

Mention the words "Gold Rush" and antique collectors will know you are talking about one of the best antique markets in the country. Now in its' 42nd year, the summer Gold Rush will be held August 15, 16 & 17 at the Olmsted County Fairgrounds located at the junction of highways 63, 52 and 14 in Rochester - Minnesota's fastest growing city in the State.

While shopping this show you will find an outstanding selection of antiques and collectibles to interest the most discriminating shopper as well as the new collector. The selection will include china, porcelain, pottery, glassware, Victorian glass, clocks, Red Wing, coins, jewelry, stoneware, banks, doorstops, corkscrews, children's items especially children's dishes, children's furniture, dolls, toys, holiday, sewing items, prints, Art Deco, furniture, primitives, Americana, linens, textiles, vintage clothing, quilts, military items, advertising memorabilia, political, lamps, sporting, breweriana, country store, gas and oil advertising, tools, fishing lures, hunting items, mid-century modern, decorative accessories, industrial antiques, repurposed antiques, post cards, autographs, old books, reference bookseller, crafts, artwork, and more.

Special feature at the show is a renown bookseller, Sonny Ideker, from Roswell, Georgia who specializes in rare and first edition books. His booth is set up in a library-style setting, and is located in the Graham East Arena. Truly a very unique and interesting booth with an amazing selection of books for sale in one setting.

What makes Gold Rush so special is the consistent quality and unique merchandise presented by the dealers. Gold Rush has grown to be one of the nation's largest shows....it truly is a unique event requiring two full days to appreciate all it has to offer. There will be several food concession booths serving up your favorite foods. So...come and seek a bit of nostalgia, hunt for antique treasures as well as enjoy a great Summer day! Come! Enjoy! Shop! Collect! Decorate!
