Black Friday Auction Brings Strong Prices in St. Nazienz, WI

This nice Lexus brought a high bid of $2,300.

Article & Photos by Charles Kurth

“Black Friday” Auction in Wisconsin? The Personal Representative for this fine estate in St. Nazienz WI. exclaimed. Being from the great state of Washington, attending an auction on Black Friday sounds strange. Imagine her surprise when the first trucks and trailers started showing up at 7:00 A.M. for the 9:00 A.M. inspection. Dressed for the weather as per the auctioneers suggestion, some came with lawn chairs and “camped out” in the best spot. Complimentary coffee kept the chills away until the action started at 10:00 A.M.

This beautiful wood bench sold for $200.

Out & About

If we all became snow birds, would there still be snow?

Employee Renee wants to move our office to Key West, Florida. My ride in this morning was slow, but my ride home sounds like it will be even slower. They have closed Highway 41 due to a semi rolled over and have announced other roll overs. The roads all around us are ice covered and they say that de-icing won't work now. Then, we get the wind with drift warnings.

The girls finished with their finals, and they both have all A's.

Brandon is consistent with challenging us all. I always have to think of my neighbor who has a son named Brandon also.

She always said he was her challenge child also, and he went on to go to college and become a special needs counselor. She always made me smile with her stories. The girls won their hockey game Tuesday night, and go to Sun Prairie, Wisconsin this Saturday. Mekenzy will not be in the net.

Brandon will be in a tournament in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin.

Double the Inventory, Double the Fun, at Newly-Expanded Prock's Crocks and Antiques in Earl, WI

It's hard to miss Prock's Crocks just west of Hayward, Wisconsin on Highway 63 - housed in an imposing brick building that was once the Earl Public School. Don't forget to visit their brand-new 4,000 square foot addition too, crammed with classic advertising, furniture, and more!

It's hard to miss Prock's Crocks and Antiques as you drive down Highway-63 west of Hayward, housed in an imposing 1924 brick structure that once served as the Earl Public School. But you'll be just as impressed at what you'll find inside: investment quality antiques and collectibles in every category.

Of course, owners Bill and Joyce Prock didn't name the venture Prock's Crocks and Antiques for nothing, and you'll find hundreds of examples of country stoneware in stock - from classic Red Wing crocks and churns to Old Sleepy Eye and Galena Pottery pieces. But stoneware is just a small fraction of what you'll find as you wander the aisles of the main floor of the building. Country store collectibles and American primitives are scattered everywhere, as is period advertising from automobile calendars to signs big and small.

Head downstairs and there's one room devoted to tools and petroliana, and another filled with vintage kitchenalia and cupboards. And be sure not to miss the brand-new 4000-square-foot addition adjacent to the original store! Choice porcelain, tin, and neon signs line the walls of the building, with an emphasis on high-end gas, brewery, and soda signs. And their wide assortment of antique furniture will appeal to all tastes. In stock during my visit: everything from a massive and heavily-carved Horner oak sideboard (that once graced the home of NFL great Michael Strahan) to some nice country pieces including an exceptional figured maple buffet.

Can't make it to the shop? No worries, as Prock's Crocks and Antiques has a wonderful website, prockcrocksantiquestoneware.com, showcasing hundreds of in-stock antiques and collectibles separated by category. Featured items from a recent visit to the site included some rare soda fountain syrup dispensers, plus choice period signs from agricultural to petroleum. And the best part: Prock's Crocks and Antiques offers free shipping within the continental United States on most items!

A trip to Prock's Crocks and Antiques is a good excuse to visit the scenic Hayward Lakes Area of northwest Wisconsin. The Freshwater Fishing Hall of Fame has its headquarters there, complete with one of the world's largest fiberglass sculptures - a 200-foot-long Muskellunge that tourists can enter to get a "fishes eye" view of the town from inside its gigantic mouth. Or just head out onto one of the many lakes to catch the real thing, as thousands do each year. Fishing not your thing? Golfers can try their luck a more than a dozen area courses.

And the area hosts countless events throughout the year. Perhaps the best-known is the American Birkebeiner, the largest cross-country skiing marathon in the United States. It's coming up soon too, with the 41st annual race happening on February 22nd. Summer brings many festivals, from June's Muskie Festival to July's half-century-old Lumberjack World Championships to September's huge Chequamegon Fat Tire Festival, one of the world's largest mountain biking competitions with more than 3,000 participants. A visit to www.haywardlakes.com will give you dozens more vacation ideas.

Prock's Crocks and Antiques is located about 15 miles west of Hayward on Highway 63 in tiny Earl, Wisconsin. They're open year 'round seven days a week from 9-5. For more information, give Bill a call at 715-635-3655, or visit their website prockcrocksantiquestoneware.com. And as always, tell 'em that you heard about them in the Auction Action Antique News!

It isn't named Prock's Crocks for nothing! You'll find hundreds of choice country stoneware pieces here, plus investment-quality antiques in most every other category - from period furniture to advertising of every era.

R-Matched set of four 1890s Dowsell's Rexall Drugs framed reverse-painted glass signs, each 61" in length - $6,900.

Charming Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen litho-tin sign, 13" x 9" - $895.

Completely restored antique oak & iron goat or sheep farm power-takeoff device, 5' in length - $795.

Framed 1906 Rainier Brewing Company calendar, 24" x 36" overall - $2,450.

Restored Mills "lollipop" penny scale, maroon finish - $1,850.

Framed 1929 Pontiac "Chief of the Sixes" calendar, full pad - $1,850.

Bill Prock admires a vintage Electric Neon Clock Co. 24" clock in great working condition, asking price $1,850.

Near-mint Dutch Masters Paints porcelain sign, 26" in diameter - $1,250.

Texaco Gasoline & Motor Oil 42" porcelain sign, two-sided - $1,250.

Double-sided Pontiac Service 42" porcelain sign, made by Walker & Co. - $2,400.

Two-sided Red Crown Gasoline porcelain sign, 42" - $1,750.

9" Galena pottery jar, green & orange glaze - $995.

Squat 8" Galena pottery jar, green & orange glaze - $995.

38" Willimantic thread-tower display cabinet - $4,995.

Fund Raising Benefit Auction & Spaghetti - Chili Supper for Doug Poffenberger

Dear Friends,

I am writing this letter with a heavy heart, my longtime employee and close family friend Doug Poffenberger has been suddenly stricken with a terminal form of a rare blood cancer (Multiple Myeloma, Stage 3). This disease has hit hard and fast and as in most cases it has been and will continue to be a huge financial burden on Doug and his family.

Doug and his family are facing a 250 mile round trip to the hospital per visit for 2 years while they fight this disease. They are telling Doug that he will be placed in the hospital for multiple visits of 6-15 days and at least 2 - 30 day visits for stem cell replacement. This means his wife, Heather will have huge costs in lodging and travel expenses as well as daily food expense on the road. At the same time Heather is losing most of her income while she travels with and spends time with her husband.

Doug is 41 years old and was just diagnosed with this disease; Doug and Heather have a 10 year old daughter, Emma and 2 boys Justin & Ian actively serving in our U.S. Military; Ashton a 13 year old stepson and Acelyn a 12 year old stepdaughter. Doug is a great guy with a good soul and a great attitude in life and has always been a hard worker and devoted to supporting his family by working hard for me daily so he could do just that.

We at Tom Harris Auctions are asking for your support! Doug and his family need thousands of dollars today, and many more thousands in the future so they can have money to live on. They will need money to cover daily expenses, Doctor & hospital bills, medicine, travel and living expenses, and house payments. Last year they put all they had into buying their first home and the mortgage bill goes on in spite of Doug not having any income.

Please, if you can find it in your heart we are asking you to please write us a check. We need to raise thousands of dollars to be able to even put a dent in this situation. Please give what you can, we appreciate anything you can do to help.

Another option and opportunity to help our friend Doug is to donate items for us to sell in an upcoming auction which all proceeds from your item(s) will go to Doug and his family. For example, I, Tom Harris am going to donate some clocks, dolls and other items to sell in the auction with the proceeds all being given to Doug and Heather. If you wish, you could send us a lamp, toy, clock, watch or anything to sell in an auction and I will pay for all marketing and give 100% to the cause.

We need fast action, Doug is in big trouble. Please send as much as you can afford for this cause to Tom Harris Auctions or call Tom or his staff to discuss your donation of antiques or collectibles to this truly worthy cause. Doug is Good People! And good people sometimes need good people to help them out of horrible situations.

I hope I have not offended anyone by writing this letter and reaching out to my friends and customers, but I know most Antiquers are good people too; and good people have to stick together.

All and any donations are greatly appreciated and if you want to send Doug a card send it here and we will get it to him. I am sure he will appreciate your thoughts and best wishes. Thank You for your Support!

Why Join a Collecting Club?

If you pick up membership promotion brochures from clubs, or visit collecting club websites, you are confronted with all kinds of statements about why collectors should join this club or that one.

"A serious collector is an educated collector and you can become an educated collector by joining our club." "A great way to become 'connected' for buying, selling or trading." "To meet other collectors and develop friendships which can last a lifetime." "To gain knowledge on values, reproductions and how to care for my collection."

These are all very valid reasons to join a collecting club... and, there are dozens more, we're sure. Some clubs do a tremendous job with membership services, offering newsletters and publications, mentoring programs, an educational website, annual convention, shows and auctions, price guides and research projects, resource libraries and archives, collector insurance programs, reproduction alerts, ethics guidelines for both collectors and dealers, member supply stores, annual membership collectors items and much more.

In reviewing what clubs offer and their various membership dues structures, it seems to us that membership in most clubs is a real bargain - a year's worth of service often for about the same price you would pay to go to a movie (with popcorn and drink), or a sports event or concert (and often a lot less).

Another factor to consider is that for most clubs we are talking about a one year commitment. Membership dues is usually for 12 months. At that time you can either renew for another year or decide not to.

Even for a person who is just beginning and maybe only mildly interested in a collecting area, what better way to determine if you want to become more serious in that collecting area than having a year's worth of member services from the club supporting that collecting area to help you "weigh your decision"?

For the collector who may possibly be interested in four or five different collecting areas, we would strongly suggest consider joining the clubs which support each of these four or five collecting areas. OK, so maybe you're not that much of a joiner. It still is the most practical way of letting the collecting club sell you on which area to eventually collect more seriously through the simple technique of comparison shopping. Let the clubs sell you on collecting in their area.

Another option, without the obligation of actively paying membership dues, is to simply ask a collecting club you may be interested in to send you some information on their club and the collecting area they support.

This is the main thrust of the Association of Collecting Clubs' Join A Club program - promoting the ACC Club Directory and the listings of over 6,000 collecting groups... probably some you've never heard of before, and how to contact them.

Now, getting back to the original question, "Why join a collecting club?" Probably the best answer is because YOU want to. It has to be your decision. Like your collection, itself, it's a personal thing. You decide what to collect... what to buy... how to display it... and everything else connected with your collecting. Joining, or not joining, a collecting club is a part of this. Most collecting clubs exist to support and help collectors, and perform a good service for their collecting area. But they also have the obligation of convincing you that you should join their group as a member.

40th Winter Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Show

Authenticity, condition and rarity are the guidelines for merchandise to be offered for sale Friday and Saturday, February 7 & 8, 2014, at the 40th consecutive Winter Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association Show. 56 carefully-chosen antiques professionals, some traveling great distances from 8 states to participate, will bring their fresh-to-market wares to the Milwaukee suburb of Waukesha. Exhibitors in this renown show typically save their best merchandise to sell at this event where savvy antiques buyers have come to expect the unusual at fair prices.

How unusual? Lyle Drier Antiques (Booth 35) will be offering for sale an interesting variety of hard-to-find bells including horse bells, muffineers, fancy tap bells and many more; a framed heart-in-hand love token (just in time for Valentine's Day!); a Red Wing Pottery bulldog and a Wallace Nutting plate with original paper label.

Angus Antiques (Booth 12) will bring a rare "Reed Volunteer" boat, patented 1872 by Reed Toy Company, Leominster, Massachusetts along with many other unusual toys, games and dolls.

Pipsqueak & Me (Booth 31) has found a 2-piece step-back cupboard with original, untouched, alligatored surface over red stain, c.1870 Argyle, Wisconsin that they will bring to the show along with a collection of Hoods Sarsaparilla calendars: 1894,1895,1897 complete + 1888 March; all having excellent color and little wear.

(For more samplings + photos, visit their website closer to show time and click on the "Show Preview" tab)

The Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association (called W.A.D.A. by many) was formed in 1948, making it the oldest, continually-functioning State antiques organization in America. Their not-for-profit group is dedicated to preserving Wisconsin's heritage and to providing ongoing education for their dealers and the general public - thus their free educational exhibit, "Native Americana", representing 30+ years of collecting by a Wisconsin resident.

The Waukesha County Expo Center's

Forum Building, 1000 Northview Road, Waukesha, WI 53188, is the home of this event. Show hours are Friday, 11-9 and Saturday, 10-5. In addition to the good food customers have come to expect, a Friday Night Fish Fry has been added to the menu so bring your appetite! Admission of $6.00 funds scholarships for Wisconsin high school students as well as grants to Wisconsin historic and heritage groups.

A $1.00 discount coupon is available at: <http://www.wisconsinantiquesdealers.com/> Free parking. ATM on premises.

Red Wing Collectors Set Their Sights On Des Moines, Iowa

Lovers of Red Wing stoneware and pottery will hunt for that next great treasure when they attend the Red Wing Collectors Society's (RWCS) Annual MidWinter GetTogether in Des Moines from Feb. 7-9.

The RWCS is devoted to those who collect a diverse line of crocks, jugs, churns, dinnerware and art pottery manufactured in Red Wing from the 1880s to 1960s. Hundreds of people from around the country are expected to attend the February event, which will help tie collectors over until the next RWCS National Convention in Red Wing in July. These two events serve as great opportunities for members to buy and sell Red Wing and learn about the history of the potteries that once operated in Red Wing, their diverse production lines and the impact they had on the American pottery industry.

The RWCS has held its winter event in Des Moines for the past 14 years, but in 2015 and 2016 it will be held at the Olympia Resort & Spa in Oconomowoc, Wis. - about 30 minutes west of downtown Milwaukee. So, collectors in and around Iowa are encouraged to take advantage of their close proximity to Des Moines and attend this February before the event moves to Wisconsin.

The MidWinter GetTogether includes a number of other organized activities like a reception from 7 to 9 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 7. The theme of this year's event is "Red Wing Hunter's Paradise". Attendees are encouraged to don their blaze orange and camouflage gear to take part in the fun.

Highlighting this year's event will be a keynote presentation from RWCS Foundation President Dave Hallstrom, who will talk about all the progress that's been made at the new Red Wing Pottery Museum in Red Wing. Several years in the making, the first phase of renovations is nearly complete and the new museum will have its grand opening in July during the RWCS Convention.

Mark Wiseman will share a historical description of the potteries that were in business in Eldora, IA from 1860 to 1892. Longtime Red Wing Pottery Dump diggers Dennis Nygaard and Steve Showers will hold separate sessions about their experiences and finds over the years and Larry Roschen and Terry Moe will discuss Red Wing's True China dinnerware line and recent discoveries. The RWCS Foundation Board will also hold Q&A sessions for attendees who want to learn more about the new Red Wing Pottery Museum. In addition, the RWCS KidsView education program will have fun activities that will teach younger collectors about Red Wing's wares.

Many attendees sell Red Wing wares from their hotel rooms during the MidWinter GetTogether. A formal Show & Sale will run from 1:30 to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 8 followed by an auction at 6 p.m. - both of which are open to the public. Proceeds from the auction will benefit the RWCS Foundation. Whether you're new to collecting Red Wing or an experienced collector, there's something for everyone at the MidWinter GetTogether.

All activities will be held at the Holiday Inn Hotel & Suites, 4800 Merle Hay Road, in Des Moines, Iowa. For more information on the MidWinter GetTogether, or the annual Red Wing Collectors Society Summer Convention, which is slated for July 10-12 in Red Wing, Minn., log on to www.redwingcollectors.org.

Annual membership in the Red Wing Collectors Society costs only $35 and includes six 16-page full-color newsletters mailed to your home throughout the year. The Red Wing Collectors Society was founded in 1977 in Red Wing, Minn. and is devoted to educating people about all American pottery. There are more than 4,000 members worldwide. The Red Wing Potteries had diverse pottery lines that included stoneware, dinnerware and art pottery. For more information or to become a member, call the RWCS business office at 800-977-7927, e-mail membership@redwingcollectors.org or log on to www.redwingcollectors.org. You can also join the RWCS on Facebook and follow it on Twitter at twitter.com/RWpottery.

Every year, a variety of rare and unexpected treasures show up for sale at the Red Wing Collectors Society's MidWinter GetTogether. The stoneware and Red Wing Decorator Line art pottery vases in these photos show a sampling of the goodies that were for sale at last year's affair.

This year's event will occur on the weekend of Feb. 7-9 at the Holiday Inn Hotel & Suites in Des Moines, IA, with the Show & Sale portion taking place from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 8.
