Vintage Vehicles and Much More at Three-Day North Central Sales Estate Auction in Rudolph, Wisconsin

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

A huge crowd of bidders descended on little Rudolph, Wisconsin on this mid-August weekend, gathered for a three-day estate auction conducted by North Central Sales Auctions. Vehicles were the focus of the sale, where more than two-hundred old cars, trucks, and tractors crossed the block along with hundreds of other collectibles. There were plenty of surprises pulled from the nooks and crannies of this "pack rat's" collections, from a 1939 Rock-Ola Jukebox to a set of four rare Indian Motorcycle oil cans that soared to $1,700!

There was lots of interest in this ladies dress-form that made a solid $500.

Blue & White Pottery Club's Annual Convention & Auction, An Outstanding Success

Article & Photos by Tammy Green

Western Mini Churn, $1,500.

The Blue & White Pottery Club held its annual convention at the Embassy Suites in East Peoria, Illinois June 5-7. 120 club members traveled from Iowa, Missouri, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Arkansas, and from as far away as North Carolina, New York, & Texas to celebrate the clubs 33rd year.

Upon arrival on Thursday afternoon, members registered for convention, enjoyed room sales, & attended the Manager's Reception in the hotel atrium.

Friday morning, the show & sale began at 10:00 with a variety of stoneware available for purchase which not only included Blue & White Stoneware, but also Whites Utica, Sleepy Eye, Red Wing, & Western Stoneware to mention a few. Also during Friday, members viewed three displays which consisted of a wonderful early lighting display, a collection of Heubach candy containers from the turn of the century, & a display of the special "green" club commemoratives that were made and sold at convention over the years (to one member who loves green).

Friday's educational seminar was presented by Greg Mathis, from Lebanon, Illinois. The presentation consisted of over 400 slides as many important and informative details were covered about the White Hall Pottery Company. This included historical aspects, the potters, the blue & white utilitarian wares, presentation pieces, figurals, and some of the greatest rarities ever produced in White Hall.

Friday evening club members participated in the annual fun auction and "Glaze" game along with the continuation of room sales.

The conclusion of the convention ended with the Saturday evening banquet with 100 members. Members visited and said goodbye until next year.

Next years convention will again be held at the Embassy Suites in East Peoria, Illinois June 11-13. For more information, contact the Blue & White Pottery Club by emailing: burley@fidnet.com or phoning 573-368-6175.

Colorado Quilting: From Mountains to Plains By Mary Ann Schmidt & the Colorado Quilting Council

This book is the culmination of more than 125 years of tradition and countless "Documentation Days," during which quilting council members record the block technique, age, batting, backing, and color of each quilt their fellow quilters trust them to preserve. Thirteen chapters explore important historical quilting moments, traditional and modern quilting themes, and the beginnings of the Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum and the Quilter's Newsletter magazine. Different council members researched, photographed, and recorded the most significant events, memories, quilters, and quilts that have influenced the progress of quilting in Colorado. Early Coloradans picked their own cotton, saved every scrap of used fabric, and made quilts from scratch to support their families and for therapy as they recovered from serious injuries and illnesses. Many of these sacred stitches are still works in progress and continue to illustrate what's important to these dedicated craftspeople.

Three Days of Fun at August 16th -18th North Central Sales Fischer Estate Auction

Article & Photos by Brian Maloney

Collectors Carl and Beverly Fischer moved to this central Wisconsin farm more than sixty years ago; and still own an antiques shop in nearby Rudolph. There was plenty of space for Carl's growing collection of old cars, which quickly started to fill the surrounding fields and woods. Fast forward to 2014, and with Carl's passing, the family decided it was time to call Duke & Kathy Packard of North Central Sales Auction Company.

"We spent several weeks on-site preparing for the auction" Kathy told me, "and ended up finding more than one-hundred & eighty cars and trucks on the property, plus dozens of tractors and other farm vehicles. Add to that the many buildings filled to the rafters with sixty years of collecting, and we knew it would take all of three days to sell it."

Saturday was day-one of the sale, concentrating on the farm machinery and primitives. Highlights ranged from an all-original Weber farm wagon that made $1,475 to a rusty-but-ornate Crystal Peninsular cast iron stove that fetched $400. I came for Sunday's auction, when the bulk of the cars and trucks were slated to sell along with hundreds of smaller collectibles.

I took quick look at the countless rusted vintage cars & trucks (and even a small fleet of school buses!) and thought that there may not be much value there. But I had forgotten how valuable old car parts have become. Auctioneer Duke Packard and crew spent the entire day traveling up & down the rows of cars, selling them as he went. A weathered 1947 Ford stake truck proved the winner of the bunch, bringing $1,300. A 1949 Chevy dump truck that had lived on the farm nearly its whole life made $900 - and a 1973 Buick Electra 225 did a bit better at $950. And with many of the hundred & eighty vehicles bringing $500 or more, the dollars were quickly starting to add up.

Inside the giant big-top tent, Auctioneer Kathy Packard handled ring number-two, where all the furniture and smaller collectibles were sold. Prices were strong throughout the day. Two Motometer radiator caps, one a Ford, one a Chevy, sold as a pair for $550. A vintage ladies dress form soon after surprised the crowd by bringing $500. The two vintage jukeboxes found ready buyers too, with a 1939 Rock-Ola model making $900 and a 1940s AMI "Mother of Plastic" juke bringing $750. And those four "barn-find" Indian Premium Motorcycle Oil cans ended up as the top-lot under the tent, selling for a solid $1,700.

A Few Other Prices:

- Group of seven vintage Winchester .22 cartridge boxes $595
- Empire toy electric stove - $120
- Garland pressed-steel ride-on truck - $100
- Ford Victor Automobile lamp - $80
- Winchester bait-casting reel - $55

Auctioneers for the event: North Central Sales principal auctioneers Duke Packard, Kathy Packard, and Gary DuFour. Based in Antigo, Wisconsin for more than twenty years, the firm conducts auctions of all kinds - from cattle sales to antiques to commercial real estate. They can be reached by telephone at 715-623-5753, or through their website www.northcentralsales.com. And as always, keep an eye out for listings of all of their upcoming auctions in the Auction Action Antique News!

1950 Pontiac Silver Streak - $950.

A whole shed full of cast iron stoves sold, the winner this ornate Crystal Peninsular model that brought $400.

Toy prices were strong from start-to-finish, with these vintage MOBO hobby horses making $350 each.

Auctioneer Duke Packard with two Motometer radiator caps, one a Ford, one a Chevy. They sold as a pair soon after for $550.

A Diamond steel-wheeled child's wagon made $360.

Hub caps anyone? There were hundreds to choose from, with most bringing $10 or less.

A rough-condition Bally Skill Ball game still managed $250.

Two auction rings ran throughout the three-day sale, one outside with the vehicles, and one under the huge big-top tent!

It took a $200 bid to win this Emerson Electric floor fan.

National Milk Glass Collectors to Hold 27th Annual Convention

The National Milk Glass Collectors Society (NMGCS) will hold their Twenty Seventh Annual convention September 25-27, 2014 at the Adoba Hotel Dearborn in Dearborn, Michigan. The Society was founded in 1987 for the purpose of promoting knowledge, interest, enjoyment and collecting of Opaque Glass commonly known as milk glass. Today the Society has several hundred members throughout the United States and many foreign countries.

The convention will start on Thursday, Sept. 25 with early registration and pickup of this year's Commemorative piece, a green and white slag Turtle on a 5 inch base. The mold for this piece is among many original molds owned by the Society. An original Commemorative piece has been produced by the Society every year starting in 1988. Several pieces from past years are still available for purchase. The Hospitality room will also be open every evening and other times during the convention. Also plan to have time to visit the Henry Ford museum which is only a few blocks away from the hotel. It is an unique experience in itself.

Friday, Sept 26, the convention will open in earnest with Registrations. A short business meeting will be conducted with welcome for many new members. An interesting presentation and 'Show and Tell' session with several pieces of unknown origin will round out the morning. The afternoon will be devoted to the annual auction of over 300 pieces of Milk Glass and related items conducted by Col. Ed Khulman who has been our professional auctioneer from the very first convention in 1988.

Saturday morning will open with the Dealers Room featuring several well known, experienced and knowledgeable professional dealers in milk glass. A presentation about the history and products of the Challinor, Taylor and Co. will be made by Brad Gougeon, well known collector and historian of the manufacturers of milk glass. The convention will close on Saturday evening with a banquet and entertainment for members and guests.

Collectors Trade Show - Serving Clubs and Collectors

The "Collectors Trade Show" on the Collectors.Org website is designed to serve the needs of both collecting clubs and collectors, offering aisles of vendors featuring products and services of interest to collectors and to the leadership of collecting clubs.

Collectors.Org is the official website of both the National Association of Collectors(NAC) and the Association of Collecting Clubs(ACC). ACC works with over 2400 collecting clubs on six continents. NAC is for individual collectors, identifying and addressing those needs and concerns that are common to all collectors.

The Collectors Trade Show can be reached directly at: <http://tradeshow.collectors.org>

Collectors will find vendors offering everything from shipping supplies to display cases...alarm systems to price guides...collector software to training courses...appraisal or restoration services and much more.

The leadership of collecting clubs will find vendors with customized logo merchandise, membership incentives and club management tools, event planning, convention sites or meeting facilities, printing options and internet services.

Other aisles feature auction houses, antique malls and galleries, collectibles shows, flea markets, and specialty aisles for specific types of collecting.

The Collectors Trade Show is always open...7 days a week...24 hours a day. Many vendors offer collectors special discounts if they are a member of an ACC member club or an NAC member.

A potential vendor wishing to have a display booth in the Collectors Trade Show can get information by contacting ACC/NAC at: info@collectors.org or 301.926.8663. A display booth can feature your full line of products or services with direct links to your own website. A booth costs $100/year and includes development of the booth based on your own website or materials provided - at no additional cost.

Sneak Preview! Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association Show

Article & Photos by Debbie McArdle- (Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association)

Savvy treasure hunters set aside the first Friday and Saturday of each October to attend the Wisconsin Antiques Dealers Association Show in Waukesha. Why? They know the professional exhibitors at the WADA show save their best inventory, at fair prices, for the event. It's tradition! And tradition is important to WADA exhibitors. After all, they have been producing THE premier Wisconsin antiques show since 1951 where authenticity, condition and rarity have been the guidelines for merchandise for 63 consecutive years!

Angus Antiques, Rick and Jackie Kojis of Greenfield, Wisconsin, always have an interesting display of hard-to-find antiques. A highlight of their fall booth at WADA will be a sterling silver lidded Ceramic Art Company (Lennox) stein, unusual in that it was a Second Prize award for Men's Doubles at the 1896 U.S. Tennis Open. Another unusual item the Kojis' will offer is a huge 18" Limoges China hand-painted charger depicting seven putti, artist signed "M. J. Bergstrom, 1900". Angus' other special offerings; a nice array of dolls and toys (including a Bliss dollhouse) and country store advertising. Rick is currently scouring the east coast in search of more unique merchandise to stock their booth. Come to the WADA show and see what he found! You will find Angus Antiques in Booth #14.

Jim and Earla Somerville, Somerville's Antiques, Lake Geneva, Wisconsin lived on the east coast for years. They have their special "haunts" to find early treasures in original surface. Returning from several buying trips, they will have many of their exciting finds for sale in Booth #35. One of the highlights offered will be an 1820 oil on canvas painting of a boy in period clothing with a toy ball and cart, set in a period cove frame.

Jim and Debbie McArdle of Iron Horse Antiques, Booth #31, have been sand-bagging treasures for 7 months. Intriguing and especially rare is an 1892 patented "perfectly harmless and intensely amusing", "Great Family Amusement Game" by the Elastic Tip Company, Boston, Massachusetts. It provides interesting insight to family priorities in the late 1800s. The box claims "Forms the basis for a Social Game for all ages" and "Trains the Eye. Cultivates Judgment. No Boy or Girl should grow up without it." According to prices advertised on the inside of the box, this was the deluxe version of the game, costing $1.00 with the nickel pistol.

Iron Horse Antiques will occupy a second booth, Booth #20, to display an exciting, 165-piece lifetime collection they recently acquired of Civil War era firearms, edged weapons and accoutrements. Offered for sale: 30+ Civil War era long arms including Springfield, Colt, Sharps, Spencer, and more; 110+ Civil War era revolvers, pepperboxes, and single shot hand guns including Colt, Remington, Allen & Wheelock, Bacon, Starr, Whitney, and more; + dozens of authentic Civil War swords, bayonets, buckles, leather accoutrements, and cased images. Highlights are martially-marked revolvers, an 1860 patent Savage Arms and an 1858 patent Pettengill, along with a Gallager's Patent Carbine.

A total of 57 carefully-chosen antiques professionals, some traveling great distances from 7 states to participate, will bring their fresh-to-market wares to the Milwaukee suburb of Waukesha. Wander the three large rooms at the Waukesha County Expo Center's Forum Building, 1000 Northview Road, Waukesha, WI 53188, home of this semi-annual event. Show hours are Friday, 11-9 and Saturday, 10-5. In addition to the good food customers have come to expect, a Friday Night Fish Fry will be served late Friday afternoon and evening so bring your appetite! Admission of $6.00 funds scholarships for high school students as well as grants to Wisconsin historic and heritage groups.

A $1.00 discount coupon for admission to the Antiques Show is available at: <http://www.WisconsinAntiquesDealers.com/> Free parking. ATM on premises.

Gone Wild for Manatee Gift Adoptions!

Adopting real Florida manatees for family and friends this Holiday season is nature-inspired, thoughtful gift-giving that helps Save the Manatee Club increase conservation and education efforts for the endangered marine mammals and their aquatic habitat. It also helps holiday shoppers stretch those often limited budgets.

Last year, Lisa Cartossa from Holt, Missouri, decided that since her two young nieces, Lily and Rose from North Carolina, were fortunate enough to have most everything they needed, she would adopt manatees as Christmas presents for them. Lisa chose adoptees "Paddy Doyle" and "Flash," who regularly winter at Blue Spring State Park, from Save the Manatee Club's Adopt-A-Manatee program. All of the manatees available for adoption can be viewed on the Club's website at <http://www.savethemanatee.org/adoptees.htm>. Two new manatees recently added to the list of adoptees are from Alabama, "Zewie" and "Bama."

An annual manatee adoption costs $25, which is just a little over $2 a month, and includes a color photo of a real manatee, an adoption certificate, biography, membership handbook, and subscriptions to the Club's newsletters which feature updated reports on the manatees in the adoption program. Shipping is free within the United States. Gift adoptions are sent with a personalized holiday message. Or for a $35 tax-deductible donation, each new member will also receive Save the Manatee Club's 2012 wall calendar, featuring spectacular manatee photos to enjoy all year and well past.

"When my nieces received their adoption packets for Christmas, I was told you could not have heard two children screaming with excitement louder than they were," said Lisa. "Immediately, the manatees' pictures went on their walls. They knew about manatees, but Save the Manatee Club's adoption program created this passion and enthusiasm in them that's very wonderful for me as an adult to be part of. I can't tell you how thrilled my nieces are to get the newsletter addressed personally to them. They read every word front to back. Who knows, the Club may have just created the next generation of marine life specialists dedicated to the conservation of these wonderful creatures."

Save the Manatee Club, a national nonprofit organization, was co-founded thirty years ago by singer/songwriter Jimmy Buffett. Funds from the Holiday gift adoptions help with manatee rescue, rehabilitation, and release efforts; research; education and public awareness projects; conservation work to protect manatees and their habitat; and for programs in the United States, Central and South America, the Wider Caribbean, and West Africa. Manatees are listed as endangered at the state, federal, and international levels.

Patrick Rose, aquatic biologist and Executive Director of the Club, points out that manatees face tremendous challenges to their survival from human activities. "In Florida alone, since record-keeping began in 1974, more than 38% of manatee deaths where cause of death is known were human-related. So it is imperative that we continue to educate the public about the presence of manatees in our waters. Adopting a manatee is a great way to learn more about this beloved species and how to help make a difference in their lives."

Find out more information about manatees and Holiday gift adoptions by contacting Save the Manatee Club at 500 N. Maitland Ave., Maitland, FL 32751, or calling 1-800-432-JOIN (5646), or visiting their web site at www.savethemanatee.org, where you can also sign up for the Club's free E-Newsletter. ## Antiques are Green Campaign: Good Tie-In for Many Collecting Clubs

National Antique Week is promoted and celebrated in Great Britain during the week of November 23-30, 2009. This week long event with the theme Antiques are Green comes at a pivotal time for the antiques trade when public and media interest is heightened by campaigns such as "Antiques are Green" spearheaded by Nigel Worboys and the petition on "Antiques" designed to persuade the British government to provide more support to the Fine Art and Antiques industry.

The Association of Collecting Clubs and National Association of Collectors have become supporters of "Antiques are Green." We urge club leaders and partners to visit Nigel Worboys' website: <http://www.antiquesaregreen.org> for excellent information on the concepts of tying the green movement into antiques and signing up as a supporter.

The program has several aims. Some of these include:

* Antiques are Green aims to promote antiques as an alternative form of recycling and conserving natural resources.

* Antiques are Green aims to encourage existing consumers and attract a new audience who may not have considered buying antiques before.

* Antiques are Green aims to encourage businesses and consumers on reducing their carbon footprint, dependency on fossil fuel and becoming greener.

* By purchasing, conserving or selling antiques you contribute to these aims. By signing up for "Antiques are Green" you become part of this vision. There is no cost for signing up.

* The Windsor Chair - As described on the "Antiques are Green" website, the best way to illustrate why antiques are green is by an example (this can be applied to many different antiques) the humble Windsor chair. The chair parts were made by craftsmen who lived in the woods where the materials came from. The turnings were produced on treadle-operated lathes, then parts were taken on foot to a local workshop to be assembled. From there the completed chairs would be distributed around the country by horse and cart or waterways. The chair saw hard use but is still around today. What a green product and what a life cycle! By buying this chair to use again we have conserved our natural resources and prevented the carbon footprint of another chair being produced, that possibly would come all the way from the Far East. I expect that a new mass produced chair will hit the waste dump long before the antique Windsor chair is sold again at auction, goes to the restorers to be revived and is retailed again for another 40 years use!

* By buying antiques and collectibles... and putting them into use, rather than buying a new product, is what "Antiques are Green" is all about. What a wonderful way for collecting clubs, for antique malls, flea markets, shows and auction houses to promote "going green" to younger consumers and buyers. This is another approach for reaching out to the young audience of 20-35 and showing how antiques can be an integral part of their lives while helping the environment all at the same time.

* Finding antiques and decorative objects to decorate your living space or work place is a great way to personalize your home or office and make it uniquely yours. Furnishing or redecorating your first apartment or home with old objectives makes economic sense, as well as "green sense."

* Vintage clothing... and clothing accessories are currently hot among young adults. We're talking buttons, fabric, jewelry, hats - either to wear or as decoration. Old advertising items and other graphic arts, movie posters and political posters, kitchen items, pottery and glassware, toys, music-related items, old record players and radios, old bottles, even vintage automobiles... the listing is endless, but can all tie in to the Green about Antiques concept. It provides a great way for a lot of collecting clubs to reach out to young adults by encouraging their interest in collecting in one or more of these areas by promoting the "eco-friendly" approach. These are the buyers, investors and collectors of the future. Find ways your club can whet their interest now.

As Nigel Worboys references on the "Antiques are Green" website, perhaps antiques is the oldest recycling trade in the world - promoting and marketing antiques and collectibles as "Antiques are Green" only makes sense.
