Pottery Museum Grand Opening and Sale of 70 Gallon Jug Highlight 2014 Red Wing Collectors Society Convention

Article & photos by Rick Natynski, Red Wing Collectors Society

In most years, reporting that a 70 gallon Red Wing jug sold for $17,000 at the Red Wing Collectors Society (RWCS) Auction would be big news in itself. Pair that with the grand opening of the new Pottery Museum of Red Wing, and you have one of the most memorable RWCS Conventions ever.

Longtime RWCS Member & major donor Louise Schleich does the honors at the Pottery Museum of Red Wing's Ribbon Cutting Ceremony & Grand Opening on July 9th. The museum is located at 240 Harrison St. in Auctioneer Todd Houghton calls for bids for this 70 gallon Red Wing shoulder jug. Although restored, the jug is one of only two known to exist today. The Red Wing Stoneware Co. made three of them for the Minnesota State Fair back in 1923. Much to the enjoyment of attendees, this 4-foot-tall monster was the top lot at the RWCS Convention Auction at $17,000.

Continued on pages 21 & 22 Red Wing, MN & is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Tuesday's through Saturday, & 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday's and closed on Monday. Visit www.potterymuseumredwing.org or call 651-327-2220 for more information.

Finds from Farm to City at Bill Cain Auction Company's Art & Carol Butzen Estate Auction

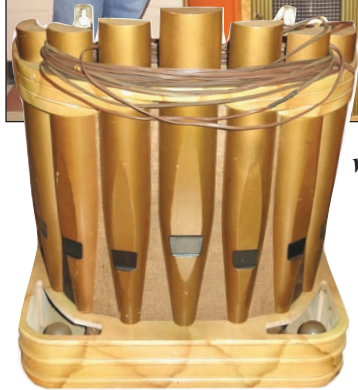

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

What more could you ask for! A perfect Wisconsin summer day surrounded by a great mix of antiques, primitives, and sporting collectibles neatly laid out on the lawn of an old farmstead - all ready to be sold to the highest bidder. That was the scene at a recent Bill Cain Auction Service event, held on September 13th. The sale was held to settle the estate of the late Art and Carol Butzen, who had willed the forty-acre farm to the city of Sheboygan for a public park. The city had crept right up to the formerly-rural property, and the auction reflected that fact, with highlights ranging from a clean John Deere 3020 tractor to an unusual 1941 Seeburg Symphonola jukebox that sold for $2,100.

Father & son auctioneers Nick and Bill Cain with one of the September 13th auction highlights: a 1941 Seeburg Hi Tone Deluxe Symphonola jukebox that later sold for $2,100!

Clear winner among the coin jewelry: this 1887 $10 Liberty Gold Eagle set in 14k gold. It later sold for a solid $1,100.

The buyer of that Seeburg jukebox got a bonus: this Seeburg Speakorgan Wall-O-Matic Remote Speaker.

Furniture winner of the day was this curved-glass oak china cabinet that brought $300.

Auctioneer Bill Cain calls for bids on the top-lot of the sale: a nice John Deere 3020 tractor complete with 148 loader that rolled off for $5,000.

Interesting Mix at September 13th Bill Cain Auction In Sheboygan, Wisconsin

Article & photos by Brian Maloney

If you're an auction addict like me, you probably know Bill Cain as one of the area's most experienced auctioneers. His auction schedule on any given week might include everything from high-end real estate to auctioning off prize-winning animals at the County Fair. What you might not know is that Bill Cain Re/Max Realty is also one of Wisconsin's top real estate firms. They're among the top-selling Re/Max teams in the state, and were named one of America's top-100 realtors by Real Estate Today. The Cain family remains committed to the auction business too, with Bill's son Nick now calling bids at most of their sales.

A chilly late summer Saturday morning didn't deter the bidders from coming to the on-site Sheboygan auction, and sunny skies quickly warmed the crowd by the 9:00 am start of the sale. Two rings ran throughout the day, with ring #1 selling the furniture and household goods, and ring #2 circling the farmstead - taking care of the tools, farm equipment, and primitives.

That circa-1980 John Deere 3030 ended up as the top-lot of the auction, rolling off for a respectable $5,000. Other farm & lawn highlights: a nearly-new John Deere D130 riding mower that made $1,200, and a clean wooden-wheeled antique grain wagon that fetched an even $1,000.

An interesting mix of furniture from antique to Mid Century Modern found ready buyers back in ring #1, with a curved glass oak china cabinet the winner at $300. Jewelry buyers has much to choose from too, with an 1887 Liberty Gold Eagle coin necklace fetching $1,100, and a 14k & diamond men's gold ring right behind at $1,025.

Many in the crowd came for that unusual jukebox still sitting in the home's basement: a 1941 Seeburg Model RC-9800 Hi Tone Deluxe Symphonola, selling complete with its Seeburg Speakorgan Wall-O-Matic Remote Speaker. I'd never seen the model in person before, best described as a round Art Deco tower with another smaller tower sprouting from the top. Within five years, Seeburg whacked that smaller tower off, resulting in the firm's popular "Trash Can" series of jukeboxes they produced until their revolutionary Selectomatic model was introduced. In fair unrestored condition, it sold to a happy local buyer for $2,100.

Some other prices:

- 14k gold men's ring with diamond horseshoe - $400
- Cast iron toy wagon & horse team - $200
- Maytag two-cylinder gas engine - $170
- Mossberg 12 gauge shotgun - $170
- Box lot of assorted Indian Head cents - $110
- Western Field bolt-action .22 rifle - $80

Auctioneers for the day were Bill Cain and Nick Cain. Bill Cain Auction & Realty has been serving the area for over thirty years, conducting auctions and real estate sales of all kinds. They can be contacted at 920-893-8842 or through their Website www.billcain.com. And as always, keep an eye out for all of their upcoming auction listings in the Auction Action Antique News!

A variety of pocket and wristwatches crossed the block - the winner a gold-cased Elgin pocket watch that fetched $170.

Farm implements ranged from this modern hay conditioner to an antique McCormick Deering grain drill that fetched $130.

A $130 bidder won this oak calendar clock.

A 1902 Sheboygan County Plat Book made $125.

A newer spelter sculpture of two horses made $150.

A $110 bid took this antique John Deere side-rake.

A nice quarter-sawn oak bookcase sold for $200.

Two rings ran throughout the day, with ring-one handling the household items and ring-two the wagonloads of farm and primitive collectibles.

Three vintage guns found ready buyers - the winner a J.C. Higgins 16 gauge double barrel shotgun that made $290.

Right: This antique grain wagon was in nice shape, and sold for an even $1,000.

Auctioneer Bill Cain found a buyer for this steel-wheeled farm wagon at $145.

These two saddles were nice buys at $70 each.

A Major Step In Fighting Fraud In The Antiques Business

History has been made! The Federal Trade Commission and the Professional Show Managers Association (PSMA) have jointly taken a giant step in educating the public about fraud in the world of antiques and collectibles and the Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association, dedicated to honesty and authenticity in the trade of antiques, has joined the effort!

A yearlong crusade, led by Nancy Johnson and Dordy Fontinel, board members of the Professional Show Managers Association, has resulted in the printing and mass distribution of hundreds of thousands of colorful informative bookmarks. Titled "Antiques, How to Shop Wisely", the educational pieces give bullet points of information to be considered when shopping for antiques.

"When shopping for antiques and collectibles, ask the dealer. How long have you been in business? How do you know any item is genuine, not a fake or reproduction? What are your criteria for identifying the item? Will you give me a written guarantee that the item is authentic? What is your return policy?"

In addition, Johnson and Fontinel were successful in their request that Consumer Information on Safely Shopping for Antiques and Collectibles be added to the FTC website. The two women spent nearly six months working with the FTC on the specific information that is now available. The recently posted article may be accessed by visiting the FTC.gov website or simply googling FTC antiques.

When PSMA President Nancy Johnson wrote an article in the Association's Winter 2007 newsletter entitled "When Did It Become OK To Cheat Someone?", a commentary on our world's complacency about being defrauded, show promoter Dordy Fontinel responded and began a dialogue with Johnson about the problem of fakes and fraud in the world of antiques and collectibles. This dialogue resulted in Fontinel speaking with Sen. John Warner, subsequent meetings with his staff and the Federal Trade Commission.

Last June, Fontinel and Johnson met with Jeanne Bumpus, Director of Congressional Affairs at the FTC, and members of the planning and information division of the FTC. Their goal was to have Antiques & Collectibles recognized as "consumer items" and to encourage the FTC to take note of the rampant fraud, which is taking place under the guise of "Antiques". The FTC agreed and the process began. Knowingly selling a fake is criminal fraud in most states.

PSMA also feels that the bookmarks will provide a convenient opportunity for anyone interested in educating the buying public and fighting the cause. PSMA encourages show promoters, dealers, shop and mall managers, club members, and auctioneers to get involved, therefore PSMA is offering the bookmarks at their cost.

The battle has just begun! Now that the FTC has issued an Alert that selling an antique or collectible item that is not authentic is Fraud, Fontinel and Johnson feel more consumer protection will occur on the state and local level. Such fraud can be reported directly on the Federal Trade Commission site at: <http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/index.shtml>. Choose the tab "File A Complaint."

These informative bookmarks are given to attendees of the Wisconsin Antique Dealers Association shows held in Waukesha each October & February.

(See www.wisconsinantiquedealers.com)

Or, to order bookmarks in quantity, send a check made payable to PSMA to the PSMA Offices, Attn: FTC Project, P.O. Box 30, Bloomfield CT 06002. The cost of the bookmarks, including Priority Mail, is $25 per 1000 or a single package of 200 for $10. (PSMA is a non-profit trade association of consumer show managers, with the majority of its members in the Antiques & Collectible fields.)

Elegant Glass: Early, Depression, & Beyond, Revised & Expanded 4th Edition

Debbie & Randy Coe

Size: 8 1/2" x 11" | 256 pp

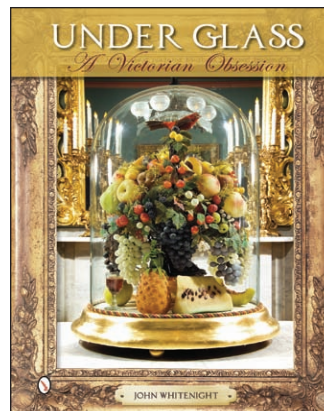

ISBN13: 9780764345449 | Binding: hard cover

Book Description

Over 1000 beautiful color photos display a wide spectrum of Elegant Glass patterns, colors, shapes, and etchings. The book's listings are updated and over 100 patterns of elegant American glass are represented in this new 4th edition. Several patterns have additional listings. Each pattern includes a complete listing of all known pieces made. Detailed descriptions are given for each item listed. Captions include descriptions of each piece pictured. The major companies of Cambridge, Fenton, Fostoria, Heisey, Imperial, Morgantown, New Martinsville, and Paden City are represented, along with their most popular patterns. Introductions to each pattern include production dates, pattern and/or etching numbers, and original company colors. Full lines of dinnerware and their companion patterns are listed, along with bedroom, bath, and decorating pieces. Aiding collectors in identifying patterns, a detailed image of each etching is provided in every description. Collector resources, a detailed bibliography, and a glossary complete this thorough guide.

Book Description

Come join an in depth exploration of a unique segment of the Victorian decorative arts. In 650 beautiful images and fascinating text, many glass domes and the objects displayed under them are revealed and discussed in detail. Items from glorious taxidermy presentations of nature, seashell works, wax flowers and fruit, and even art formed of human hair are studied carefully. Additional chapters include examples of skeleton leaves and phantom bouquets; wool work; glass whimsies; seed, paper, muslin, and silk work; automata—mechanical, musical masterworks— and much more. Social commentary of the times enriches the exploration of these beautiful art objects. Experience the lightheartedness and whimsy to be found in the decorative arts created from 1837 to 1901 and preserved under these domes.

31st Annual Native American Indian Artifact Show

Article & Photos by Janet Gobeli
(Badger State Archaeological Society)

The Badger State Archaeological Society will hold its 31st Annual Native American Indian Artifact Show on Sunday October 26th. The event will be held at the Rehmstedt gym in Monticello School, 334 South Main Street, Monticello, WI from 8:00 AM to 3:00 PM. Cost of admission is $2.00 for 14 years and older.

The show was started by Ralph Hammerly with only 5 tables in Monroe. The show has grown to over 80 tables of artifacts on display or for sale, including points, stone, bone, copper artifacts, Eskimo items, prints, books, pottery, jewelry, rugs and a whole lot more. The show itself is a history lesson, and there will be experts on hand to identify your artifacts.

The Boy Scout Troop #106 will have a lunch stand. There will be awards for best of show, best personal find, judge's choice, and best educational display.

For more information contact Steve or Janet Gobeli 608-329-4781

15th Annual International Match Safe Association

The International Match Safe Association has announced its fifteenth convention will be held in Wilmington, Delaware on October 17-18, 2014. The convention will be held in conjunction with the Portable Fire - A History of Match Safes exhibit featuring 500 pocket match safes, at the Delaware Art Museum, 2301 Kentmere Parkway, Wilmington, DE 19806. The exhibit will open on September 13, 2014 and run through March 15, 2015.

Highlights of the convention include educational sessions on a variety of subjects, show and tell, and selling among attendees. A large number of match safes will be available for viewing. There will be ample opportunity for attendees to exchange information and to discuss individual match safes.

IMSA members include novice to premiere collectors, dealers and experts from around the world. Members receive a quarterly newsletter and access to valuable information found in the membership section of the club's web site. IMSA has published three books: Japanese Match Safes, Exceptional Match Safes and Gorham Match Safes. The books are available through IMSA by visiting its website. IMSA's latest book on porcelain character match safes fondly referred to as "Little People" by many collectors will be available this fall.

Pre-registration for the convention is required. For additional information contact George Sparacio, mrvestal@aol.com Information is also available by contact IMSA, PO Box 227, Riverdale, NJ 07457, phone 856-981-2955 or visiting IMSA's website at www.matchesafe.org

70 Gallon Jug Brings $17,000 at Red Wing Collectors Society Convention Auction

Article & photos by Rick Natynski, Red Wing Collectors Society

Much to the enjoyment of more than 400 attendees, the RWCS Foundation proudly opened the doors to the new Pottery Museum on Wednesday, July 9 during a ribbon-cutting ceremony and fundraising event. The 13,000 sq. ft. facility, which is located in the Pottery Place Annex building at 240 Harrison St. in Red Wing, has more than 6,000 pieces of Red Wing stoneware and pottery on display – largely in thanks to the donation of longtime RWCS member Louise Schleich and her late husband, Jerry. The couple created a museum to display their collection in Lincoln, Neb. many years ago, but it was always their intention to move the collection to Red Wing once a permanent, adequately sized location could be acquired.

The 38th Annual RWCS Convention officially kicked off the next day, with the Schleich Family presenting the keynote address at Red Wing High School. They discussed their longtime passion for collecting and the process of moving the collection back to where it was made.

This year's Convention brought nearly 1,500 visitors to the city of Red Wing during the week of July 7 to buy, sell and learn more about the many lines of Red Wing stoneware, art pottery and dinnerware. This year's event was sponsored by Red Wing Stoneware, Red Wing Pottery, Larry's Jugs Antiques and other local businesses.

Events throughout the week included the annual business meeting, a "Crock Hunt" scavenger hunt around the historic Mississippi River town, and the always anticipated Saturday Show & Sale. There was also a special display room at Red Wing High School, where members created their own unique displays for the education and enjoyment of attendees, combined with some fun and creative competition. Members bought and sold items throughout the week in the parking lot at Pottery Place Mall. About 200 volunteers helped make this year's Convention a success.

As mentioned earlier, the "big" news from the always anticipated RWCS Convention Auction was that a 70 gallon shoulder jug sold for $17,000. The jug, which had been restored, is one of only three that the Red Wing Stoneware Co. made for the 1923 Minnesota State Fair. Only one other of these jugs is known to have survived, and it is now part of the Pottery Museum's collection; it was one of the pieces donated by the Schleich Family.

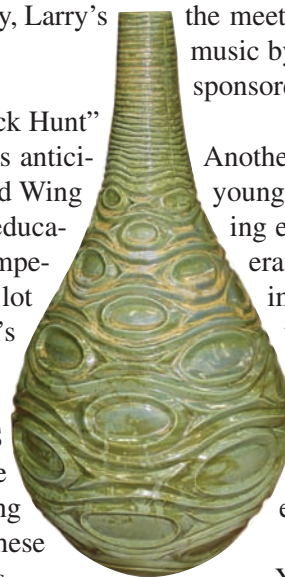

Other items of interest in this year's July 10 auction, which was operated by Houghton's Auction Service, included a 4 gallon salt glaze crock with triple target decoration (hairline), $5,000; a 4 gallon North Star salt glaze water cooler with upturned leaf (mint), $2,000 and a mint "Minne-ha-ha Brand" advertising crock, $1,900; Two 1977 (first-year) RWCS Commemoratives sold for $1,150 and $1,050, respectively.

Notable art pottery items included a blue/green #687 Chromoline vase that sold for $650, and an M3016 Decorator Line vase in silver green glaze for $400. Top dinnerware lots included two sample Red Wing dinnerware plates. One that was likely made for Sheraton Hotels in the 1960s sold for $525, while another with the Turtle Dove pattern in blue and green sold for $340. The auction, which consisted of about 190 items, brought in nearly $78,000 in total sales.

The year's commemorative, which could be purchased only by RWCS members, was a Red Wing Success Filter. Two limited-edition commemoratives were also produced. These were mixed in with the regular commemoratives and all commemoratives were packaged in sealed boxes, so a small number of members were fortunate enough to get one. Of all the Commemorative Success Filters that were made, 90 percent were zinc glaze with a red wing, 9 percent were salt glaze and 38 were blue-sponged. RWCS Commemorative Manager Bob Morawski also had several special items made that were auctioned off to benefit the Society.

This 4 gallon Red Wing salt glaze crock is the only piece known to have a triple cobalt target decoration. Thus, it sold for $5,000 despite having a short hairline on the back.

Standing 20 inches tall, this Red Wing M3016 Decorator Line vase was a great buy at $400.

Attendees had a good selection of topics to learn about during the educational sessions held on July 11, including an orientation for first timers, Red Wing zinc glaze, recent finds from the old pottery dump, Red Wing dinnerware, kiln building, insuring your collection, history of Iowa's Eldora Potteries and creating the 2013 RWCS Commemorative. Local potter Richard Spiller held hands-on pottery classes for adults, and the RWCS Foundation held an info session on all the happenings at the new Pottery Museum.

In recognition for all the research they have performed and knowledge they have shared on Red Wing's many lines of dinnerware, longtime friends and RWCS Members Larry Roschen and Terry Moe were inducted into the RWCS Hall of Fame later that afternoon during the Annual Business Meeting. In addition, it was announced that the following members were elected to the RWCS Board of Directors: Larry Birks (President), Paul Wichert (Vice President) Dan Beck (Treasurer) Nancy Lambert (Historian) and Jerry Mounts (Rep. at Large). Re-elected to the Board were John Sagat (Secretary) and Russa Robinson (Rep. at Large). Following the meeting, the 3rd annual Crock Fest celebration featuring food vendors and music by Generation was held at Red Wing's Central Park later that day. It was sponsored by Red Wing Stoneware and Red Wing Pottery.

Another unique aspect of the RWCS Convention was the participation of the younger generation through the KidsView program. The Society is on the leading edge of creating engaging and educational ways to get the younger generations involved in collecting. The focus on these RWCS members is an important part of the vision of the Society to ensure its continued existence and growth. Many interactive and challenging activities and seminars were offered for children of all ages. Former Red Wing Potteries employee Marion Bjorklund told the kids about her time working as a plate painter, and Emily Nelson (Red Wing Art Reach) and Susan Obermeyer (Northern Clay Center) lead the kids in hands-on art projects and pottery creations.

Young Red Wing collectors ages 13 to 20 participated in the Young Collectors Club at Convention. Activities included a hands-on pottery wheel opportunity led by RWCS Members Frank Sheldon and Mike Robinson, and a hike up Red Wing's famed Barn Bluff. Young Collectors Club creator and chairperson Wendy Calliccoat announced the during the Annual Business Meeting that she was stepping down from her role. The RWCS is now in search of members to lead KidsView and Young Collectors.

The next official RWCS event will be the annual MidWinter GetTogether, which will be held at the Olympia Resort and Spa in Oconomowoc, Wis., February 6-8, 2015. This will be the first time the event is held in Wisconsin after a long stint in Iowa. To make lodging reservations, contact the Olympia Resort at 800-558-9573. Registration for the MidWinter event will open in October and can be done online at the RWCS website or by phone or mail.

The Red Wing Collectors Society was founded in 1977 in Red Wing, Minn. and is devoted to educating people about all American pottery. There are about 4,000 members worldwide. The Red Wing Potteries had diverse pottery lines that included stoneware, dinnerware and art pottery. For more information or to become a member, call the RWCS business office at 800-977-7927, e-mail director@redwingcollectors.org or log on to www.RedWingCollectors.org. Joined in Red Wing by her family, Louise Schleich (second from right) stands beside the largest piece she donated to the Pottery Museum of Red Wing – a massive 70 gallon shoulder jug. Most collectors believed it was the only one still in existence until its twin was sold at the RWCS Auction on July 10. Schleich donated more than 5,000 pieces of Red Wing stoneware, pottery and dinnerware to the museum that she collected with her late husband, Jerry.

Longtime RWCS Members Terry Moe (left) and Larry Roschen were inducted into the RWCS Hall of Fame during the Society's Annual Business Meeting on Friday, July 11. Over the past several years, the duo has dedicated countless hours towards researching Red Wing's many dinnerware lines and sharing their knowledge with fellow members through educational presentations and articles in the RWCS Newsletter.

This impressive 4 gallon Red Wing threshing jug with "Ski" oval sold for $1,200. It had a small flake and a chip.

There were two 30 gallon elephant Ear transition crocks in the auction. The mint one pictured here sold for $1,150, while a damaged one sold for $450.

RWCS Charter Member and RWCS Foundation Board Member Larry Peterson speaks at the Pottery Museum of Red Wing Ribbon Cutting Ceremony. In addition to leading the negotiations when acquiring the new museum space, Peterson served as project manager and oversaw the building renovations from start to finish.

This 3.25" tall "Lunch Hour" miniature crock sold for $1,050. In addition to the "Red Wing, Minn" inscription on one side, the name "Ellen" was scratched into the other side.

Likely made in the 1960s as a sample piece for the Sheraton Hotels chain, this Red Wing dinner plate sold for $525. It had a "UG-247" glaze code written on the back.

Bottom-signed "Minnesota Stoneware Co.," this 3 gallon crock Minne-ha-ha Brand advertising crock sold for $1,900 at the RWCS Convention Auction on July 10.

The Red Wing Collectors Society Convention is a great family event, offering activities for all ages. More than 80 children participated in the KidsView educational program, which featured hands-on activities like plate painting. Kids even had the chance to work with clay and create their own piece of pottery.

Two 1977 RWCS Commemoratives from the Society's inaugural year crossed the block at the RWCS Convention Auction. The one on the left sold for $1,050, while the other sold for $1,150.

R: Made by Red Wing Stoneware Co., the 2014 RWCS Commemorative was a Red Wing Success Filter with lid. The Version A piece (90 percent of those manufactured) was a zinc glaze filter with a red wing (left). Version B (9 percent made) was a salt glaze filter, and Version C (only 38 pieces made) was made in blue sponge. Convention attendees also had the opportunity to buy a limited-edition accessory piece – a riser that Success Filters sat on so a mug could fit under the spigot when dispensing water.

The Midwest Antique and Art Show And The Collector's Eye in Cedar Rapids, Iowa

Article & Photos by The Midwest Antique and Art Show The Collector's Eye Show

The 56th Midwest Antique and Art and Collector's Eye Shows is coming Sunday, October 26th, to Hawkeye Downs Fairgrounds in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

This show venue is NOT just a high-end antiques and collectibles show but one that has transitioned over the last 10 years in order to be attractive to both younger buyers and our faithful, established clientele. There is a growing emphasis on art and design. We have encouraged dealers to expand offerings toward the tastes of contemporary lifestyles and interest areas of our growing audience. More mid-century furniture and accessories, sculpture, photography, ceramics, and paintings are displayed in booths. We have worked hard to attract vendors who take pride in presenting booths with different and exemplary items. We encourage dealers to take risks with their offerings in order to present our buying public with an experience that is something special, educational and worth attending.

Certainly, high-end antiques, art and collectibles are plentiful at these shows. Our reputation, gained over 28 years, speaks for itself. Ask someone who has been there. They will tell you it is truly a unique opportunity in our geographic region. Or, visit our website: www.mwantiquesthows.com and click on photos, the Midwest pig or the Collector's Eye icon in order to view photos from last spring's shows.

The shows are in the same Expo Center building at the Hawkeye Downs Fairgrounds located in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, at 4400 6th Street S.W., and a single $8 admission allows the customer access to both shows. The Midwest Show has 67 vendors and the Collector's Eye 42; the $8 entrance fee allows access to two shows and 109 dealers. Additionally, Hawkeye Downs has free parking! Economy of scale and free parking make the combined Midwest and Collector's Eye shows a bargain. Consider how far you would have to travel outside Iowa to find a comparable show with such a wide and varied selection of quality antiques, art and collectibles carefully selected from the Midwest and regions north, south, east and west from here.

Please join us for our 28th year and 56th show on Sunday, April 12, 2015. The shows begin at 10 a.m., and last until 4 p.m. Join the long lines waiting at the doors prior to 10 a.m., and see what the buzz and longevity of these shows is all about. Enthusiastic customers support quality shows and these two shows have a very loyal customer base.

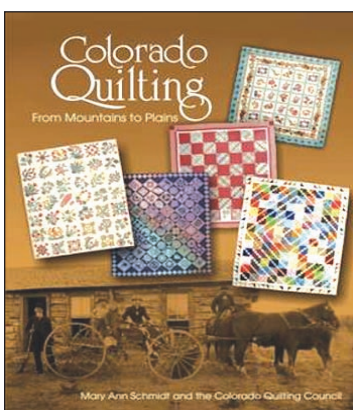

Booth photos will be posted on our Facebook page Saturday evening, October 25th, for pre-show booth and object previews. Please "like us" on Facebook and let friends know you like what you see. Sometimes pictures are truly worth a thousand words. We look forward to your visit Sunday, October 26th.

Colorado Quilting: From Mountains to Plains By Mary Ann Schmidt & the Colorado Quilting Council

This book is the culmination of more than 125 years of tradition and countless "Documentation Days," during which quilting council members record the block technique, age, batting, backing, and color of each quilt their fellow quilters trust them to preserve. Thirteen chapters explore important historical quilting moments, traditional and modern quilting themes, and the beginnings of the Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum and the Quilter's Newsletter magazine. Different council members researched, photographed, and recorded the most significant events, memories, quilters, and quilts that have influenced the progress of quilting in Colorado. Early Coloradans picked their own cotton, saved every scrap of used fabric, and made quilts from scratch to support their families and for therapy as they recovered from serious injuries and illnesses. Many of these sacred stitches are still works in progress and continue to illustrate what's important to
